"Where did we come from?"

Derived from a hoppy place in space, PLANET XPA has helped form the utopian society of Lupulin. The hops harvested here provide the extreme floral fruitiness currently invading your mouth. Rare golden grains make up the terrestrial body while Burt mines produce mineral-rich water, amplifying spicy and bitter notes. Seasons change, but this ale doesn't...SAVE SPACE FOR BEER!

“Is there alien life out there?”

Brewed wit grains from the geometric circles of Ackling, CROP FORMATION exhibits characteristics unique to wheat manipulated by alien visitors. Thistle honey thrusts life into a simple and subtle sweetness that buzzes your buds. A suppressed hop profile allows basil to assimilate complexity as the gases collected from the Carbon Nations provide a satiating mouth feel. Drinkers become beelievers...SAVE SPACE FOR BEER!

ABOUT OUR BREWERY

For thousands of years beer has had a place in society. Some might argue that it's even responsible for organized civilization. Even though such a commodity had been around for so long, there is a huge opening in our market to be innovative and creative. Breweries new and old have continued to push the boundaries of beer making. We at Cosmos plan to be on the forefront of brewing greatness. From old world styles to modern techniques, our philosophy is simply universal. We have surrounded ourselves with local and international inspirations and continue to develop our craft. This is directly reflected in our line of artisanal and aged beers. As we count down to launching a power house micro brewery that will be seen across the cosmos, we invite you to hop aboard and be a part of our travels into the future. Learn from the past, be present, drink forward and remember...SAVE SPACE FOR BEER!
